

- 1 Write three places where we use inverted commas.
- a. (1 mark)
- b. (1 mark)
- c. (1 mark)
- 2 Insert inverted commas and any other missing punctuation in the following direct speech.
- a. I've just discovered that our cousins are coming for the weekend said Brogan. (1 mark)
- b. Joe was delighted and said We should take them to the forest and go exploring! (1 mark)
- c. Yes, let's build a den too exclaimed Brogan excitedly. We'll have to take a picnic. (1 mark)
- d. I'm not sure Sarah will come said Joe Not after last time. (1 mark)
- e. The incident with the spider wasn't my fault responded Brogan defensively. (1 mark)
- 3 Which two sentences are not correctly punctuated? Tick two. (2 marks)
- a. "How many environmental issues are on today's agenda?" asked the Year 6 House Captain.
- b. "I've just eaten two cakes and a packet of crisps", Rita told Dev.
- c. "I've not seen the cartoon you are talking about," Phil said.
- d. "We have to go now"! Dad said firmly, "Otherwise we will be late."
- e. "I've just seen our friends walking down the road with their new dog!"